THE "BOYS" OF THE 60'S EAT, DRINK AND MAKE MERRY AGAIN

VETERANS HAVE BIG TIME.

Meeting Saturday Afternoon a Pleasant Affair---Getting Ready for New Suits.

The spirit of the sixties gave the true ring that sounded like the response to the war call of today, at the regular monthly meeting of the Confederate veterans held Saturday afternoon at headquarters. The warm spring weather, the nearness to the Washington reunion date and the keen interest in the uniform campaign seemed as incentives to bring out the largest number of veterans that have gathered this year. Then it had been whispered about that an unknown friend would provide a luncheon very much more elaborate than the usual one served at regular meetings and the members were out in full force.

The devotional exercises were conducted by the chaplain, Rev. J. M. Hillier, assisted by Comrade Robert Parker; and music was furnished by Misses Madge Fields and Iris Burrus, patriotic songs taking the lead, the veterans joining in the chorus.

The meeting was presided over by Commander Tom Wood and Secretary A. M. Idol, and immediately following the roll the commander called upon Dr. J. T. Burrus, who in an impromptu manner spoke eloquently and tenderly of the Confederate veteran whom he first learned to love while at his father's knee. Dr. Burrus was listened to with rapt attention. Later in the afternoon Col. D. H. Milton, of Raleigh, gave a strong talk, referring to the conditions existing over the country, how North Carolina as of old (the days of the sixties) stood ready to take her place in the front, and urged the women to "be ready."

Commander Wood made a rousing speech that was a mixture of the patriotism of the sixties and 1917 and when he called for every veteran who was ready to go to the front and protect our flag, the camp as a whole rose.

At the conclusion of the unusually full business period the camp unanimously confirmed the sponsor's selection of Mrs. Herbert Field as Dame of Honor for the Washington reunion, and Paul Stamey, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Stamey, was selected as mascot for the camp for the Washington reunion. This not only gives young Stamey the privilege of attending the meetings here in the camp but allows him the privilege of wearing a gray uniform and marching in the parade at Washington. This part is optional with him.

There were numerous letters to be read and gifts presented at the gift and letter period always presided over by the sponsor, Miss I. Irvin Pylor. One of the most important letters contained a copy of the joint resolution in regard to the origin of the flag of the Confederate States of America, resolved by the house of representatives, the senate concurring.

So the whole of North Carolina is ready to go to Washington and stand behind the "Stars and Bars" just as they are ready to praise Senator Holderness for his ardent work to raise the pensions.

A very handsome book Dr. James Spruitts "Chronicles of the Cape Fear Section 1660-1916," was sent by Dr. Spruitt, and the camp was almost overcome with happiness when the gift of an organ was presented from Mr. W. G. Shipman.

Mrs. J. Ed Kirkman, Mrs. Robert Morrow, Mrs. Bascom Hoskins, Mrs. Herbert Field, Misses Iris Burrus, Madge Field, Lucile Sherrod, Dorothy Wood and Catherine Pickard served the elegant luncheon furnished by a prominent patriotic citizen. The lunch consisted of deviled ham sandwiches, pickles, coffee, white and red brick ice cream and pound cake. The favors were silk flag Old Glory lapel bows. Possibly the most exciting part of the meeting was while the "smoker" was in full swing and when the sponsor made her report of the uniform fund as collected by Messdames Randall B. Terry, Herbert Field, and herself. As the orders must go out next Monday, the campaign is to be pushed this week and it is hoped that every citizen will contribute something. Donations may be left at The Enterprise and Review offices. This contribution list, which was first started at the February meeting by W. L. Stamey, chairman of the patrons committee of headquarters, and increased by Fred N. Tate at the March meeting has now reached the following amount:

Aged Citizen Passes to Reward

Zimri A. Burns, one of the pioneer citizens of High Point, died Tuesday morning, after a lingering illness. Deceased was 79 years of age and had lived here for the past 55 years. He was a substantial citizen and had served the city in an official capacity. He was a blacksmith by trade and at one time made coffins and had the distinction of having made the coffin for the first person buried in the local cemetery. The funeral services were conducted from the residence on North Main street yesterday afternoon, conducted by Rev. A. G. Dixon of Main Street M. P. church assisted by Rev. J. M. Hilliard and interment followed in Oakwood cemetery. Ten children survive, five by the first marriage Miss Lillie Beckerdite of Winston. Miss Eugenia Burns, A. L. and Hurlis Burns of High Point; Mrs. Ida Estes of Colburn, Va., and Lyndon Burns of Winston; Misses Annie, Carson, Emory and Charlie Burns of this city by the second marriage. A large number of grandchildren and other relatives are left to mourn their loss.

Plow Day for City

In order to stimulate interest in growing foodstuffs the Commercial Club and Woman's Club will observe "plow" or "plant" day here soon. The idea is to get the people aroused as to the imperative need of raising everything possible in the way of vegetables and grain in order to keep down the rapid advance in prices and also that there may not be want among the people if the war continues any length of time.

The Argyle Shows Here

By all means attend the Carnival at the North Main Street ball park and you will have the time of your life. It is one of the biggest shows or carnivals to visit High Point. Everything new and clean, nothing to offend any one. The big free wild animal act is alone worth going miles to see. There are nine big shows and each and all of merit. Manager Gibbs this year has a really good carnival, one that will give genuine satisfaction to young and old. Join the crowds--go to the carnival each night. Remember at the old ball park this side of Mechanicsville. Here the rest of the week. Get busy and have some real, unadulterated fun.

BABY FOUND DEAD ON PROMNENT STREET

Thursday afternoon while playing on English street some boys found a naked infant which had evidently been born only a short while before. The child was dead and who placed it there is a mystery as well as who is its mother. Does the act hide some scandal or does it show the heartlessness of some wretch who took this method of disposing of this mite of a human being. The child was not fully matured and had never been dressed, but withal a human being. Dr. Walker was called to the case and took charge while the officers are making inquiry as to its identity. Later--It is reported that the mother of the child is known.

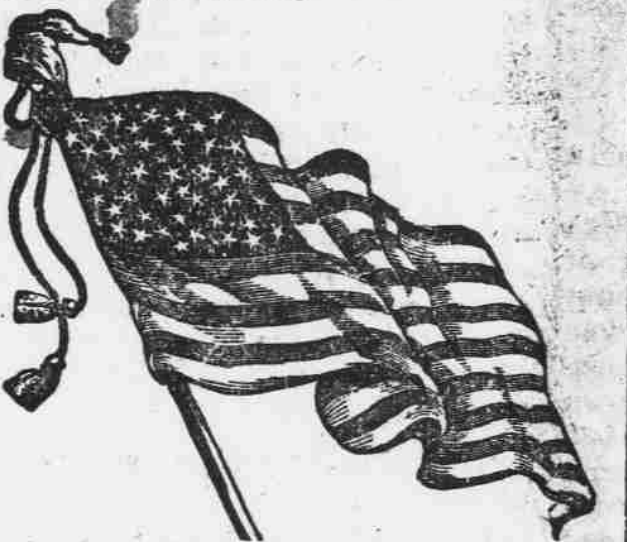

MRS. FITZGERALD DEAD
Died, Tuesday morning, Mrs. J. V. Fitzgerald in her 40th year. Surviving are husband and four children. The funeral services were held Wednesday morning from the Welch Memorial church. The remains were taken to Danville on 36.

The Argyle shows got to show at last.

This nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.--Lincoln.

HERE'S TO OLD GLORY, GOD BLESS HER!

If anyone attempts to haul down the American flag, shoot him on the spot.--John A. Dix.

O folds of white and scarlet! O blue field with your silver stars! May fond eyes welcome you, willing feet follow you, strong hands defend you, warm hearts cherish you, and dying lips give you their blessing! Ours by inheritance, ours by allegiance, ours by affection--long may you float on the free winds of heaven, the emblem of liberty, the hope of the world!--Anon.

THE PRICE OF PEACE.

I HAVE never advocated war except as a means of peace.--Grant.
Peace won by compromise is usually a short-lived achievement.--Winfield Scott.
Peace, above all things is to be desired; but blood must be spilled to obtain it on equal and lasting terms.--Andrew Jackson.

Let's Put Up the Best Available Men on Guard

April 24th is the day of the primary. Let every citizen take the right kind of interest in the primary because this is the time for the elimination of the surplus candidates for the election to be held May 8th. Let nothing but the highest motives for the best interests of your city govern your action. This is your city and you should make it a better city by placing the best men in office. A man may be a good fellow, have lots of friends and still lack the ability to serve the city as it should be served. Too often we favor this or that friend, when we feel like it is not the best thing to do. Let's put none but the best available men over the city's affairs. There is much to do in this city of 15,000 inhabitants and it takes capable business men to handle the various matters in the right way.

Merry Minstrel Maids

For the first time in the history of High Point we are to have a real live, up-to-date minstrel show and the caste is composed entirely of ladies. Could any thing be more interesting and funny than to see about fifty of our most popular society matrons and maids each one in black face and woolly wigs and doing the funny stunts of a good minstrel show.

The United Daughters of the confederacy are sponsors for the entertainment and have secured Miss Lillian E. Hall who will have charge of the rehearsals and stage the production.

Miss Hall has been working in Georgia and South Carolina the past two years and comes with the highest testimonials. She recently presented her Merry Minstrel Maids at Concord and it was universally conceded to be away ahead of all former efforts of the men.

The ladies are rehearsing daily and more than enthusiastic over the progress they are making.

The auditorium has been secured for next Tuesday night, April 24th. It's the big show of the season, so don't miss it.

TO MAKE THE RACE IN THE PRIMARIES

Saturday night the time limit for candidates to file notice expired and the following will make the race in the primaries:

For Mayor--W. P. Ragan, Chas. F. Tomlinson and C. D. Smith.

FOR COUNCILMEN
First Ward--Chas. F. Long, Dr. J. T. Burrus, J. W. Hedrick and Louis E. Ragan.

Second Ward--J. W. Sechrest and R. O. Lindsay.

Third Ward--C. C. Muse, O. A. Kirkman, W. E. Snow, C. V. Cummings and Geo. A. Kersey.

Fourth Ward--Dr. D. A. Stanton, Dr. W. J. McAnally, D. F. Andrews and Chas. B. Embler.

The second ward candidates will not have to enter the primary as there are only two.

The primary will eliminate all but 2 candidates in each ward and leave two of the mayoralty candidates. In the primary every qualified voter can make his choice for mayor while those living in a given ward can only vote for two of the candidates from HIS ward. But in the election next month the people will have a right to vote for any ONE candidate for Mayor and any ONE candidate from EACH ward. This is the way the Dalton case was drawn, giving you the right to vote by wards in the primary, for councilmen and in the election as a whole.

GOES WITH COMMERCIAL
W. T. Saunders has accepted the position as teller in the Commercial National Bank, succeeding E. S. Wall, resigned. Mr. Saunders has been ticket agent here for more than seven years. He is well qualified for the new position he will assume May 1st.

Lonnie Tooms, colored, was arrested here Thursday for appropriating a Greensboro horse which he tried to sell here.

The art exhibit at South Main Street school was attended by quite a number of people who were well repaid for having had the pleasure of looking upon so many reproductions from masterpieces.

Ernest S. Wall, assistant cashier of the Commercial National Bank, has resigned his position to go with the Slane Hosiery mills, a new enterprise for this city.

Which is the most deadly of the Seven Sins? The picture at the Rose each Wednesday will show you.

Big Surprise Sprung by Made to Order Board

Another high handed act by the City Council Tuesday night by moving up the election of the school superintendent and principals three months. These officers are elected in June and consequently it should have been the work of the incoming board. It was an insult straight out to take this out of their hands, but then this Board put in power by the legislature (and not by a vote of the people) has done many things along the same lines and the people are not surprised. In justice to Councilman Terry be it said that he fought the measure alone. Councilman Smith was not present, consequently Councilman Alexander and Davis and Mayor Pickett did the trick.

There is no argument as to the fitness of any chosen, they may have all been re-elected by the incoming board (they are capable men) but the whole thing hinges on the appropriated authority.

Councilman Terry filed his objections and also stated that the City attorney said the act was illegal and it is believed the action of the retiring board will be revoked by the incoming board, as it should be.

The school officers were given a raise in salary, as well as five members of the fire department.

We believe that Councilman Terry has stood for the right as he saw it in all matters coming before the Board. He is courageous and refuses to be led by the halter. A former popular councilman told the editor this morning that he would rather serve with Bob Terry on the Board than any man he knew of and this gentleman has served the city something like ten years.

MARRIAGE TODAY

Mr. Van Wirt Siceloff and Miss Lucy Beatrice Eaton announce their marriage Thursday afternoon, April 19th, 1917, 206 Woodland Avenue, Winston-Salem, N. C. At home Midway, N. C., after May 1st.

Interesting Announcement

Miss Venetia Smith will have something interesting for the trade Saturday. Watch for circular.

The Spirit of Patriotism

The editor was riding to Greensboro one day last week with his family and several neighbor children. Along the route the children began to sing patriotic songs: "America", "Star Spangled Banner", "Columbia", "Carolina", "Dixie", etc. The little flags of red, white and blue proudly waved to the breezes and also seemed to catch the spirit of patriotism as the notes from the youthful throats rang out on the air. "My Country 'Tis of Thee" began one little girl when she was admonished that it was an act of disloyalty to sing this song without standing and after a few moments of argument the five arose and sang the whole song through without a hitch. "My Country 'Tis of Thee, Sweet Land of Liberty"--oh, what a blessed assurance, what a great thing to have instilled into the hearts of our children such profound patriotism.

A few minutes afterwards our car passed a little boy on the roadside, his eyes were riveted on that little star spangled banner proudly floating to the breezes with the wording in large letters inscribed thereon: "AMERICA FIRST". The little fellow read it quickly, his face brightened up. He raised his hat and sent a mighty shout to the heavens. That little fellow was a true American. In his little heart burned that pure devotion to his country and its flag and it was a natural outburst of that patriotic feeling within when he saw the magic words: "AMERICA FIRST" emblazoned on the banner he loved so well. That little fellow is of the salt of the earth.

Patriotism, yes teach it every day in the schools and homes to the children. Reverence for and devotion to the flag should be impressed upon the minds of the youth and when war stalks forth in the land there would be volunteers without much urging. By all means keep the fires of patriotism burning at all times.

An interesting meeting of the recently organized merchants association was held Friday night on the second floor of the People's House Furnishing Co. Several talks were made by citizens along the line of mutual helpfulness.

W. J. Frazier of Route 3, paid us a pleasant visit yesterday and renewed his subscription.

Facing Starvation Period

Committeeman A. E. Tate of the home gardening proposition, says that the south is facing a starvation period and that if the farmers of the south don't get busy and plant every acre possible that want will stalk through the land. The farmer has a great patriotic duty to perform and if he fails in such a time he is not doing his duty to his country, which is just as imperative as protecting our country by taking up arms.

The Candidates

Messrs. W. P. Ragan and Chas. F. Tomlinson, candidates for mayor, are both good men, and either would fill the office of mayor with dignity and credit to the city. There are also several good candidates for City Councilmen and it is well to look them over carefully and see just who is better suited for the four councilmen. High Point needs strong, able men now more than ever and we believe the voters are going to see that this is done. Don't let campaign thunder swerve you from your duty to your city.

SEVEN BILLION DOLLARS CONGRESS' FIRST SHOT

When the roll was called on the big bond issue in the House not a member voted against it.

Congress is turning out big news at a rapid rate and the whole nation is busy doing "service for all." Full and complete accounts of all the big news appears in The Review this week which our readers will find especially interesting.

WALKER-TESH

John W. Walker, Jr., and Miss Ruby Gertrude Tesh were united in marriage Thursday night at the home of the bride on East Washington street by Rev. Gilbert T. Rowe. They left on No. 38 for a trip to Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York. The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. Fred Tesh and well and favorably known. The groom is one of High Point's young business men.

Invitations have been sent out announcing the engagement of Miss Frances, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Mann to John R. Peacock, son of Dr. and Mrs. Dred Peacock, the happy event to occur May 1st at Wesley Memorial M. E. church.

Married--Miss Irene Saferight and Julius Stillwell at the home of Mrs. Matilda Johnson last week, Rev. F. S. Fiddler officiating.

Respectfully,
C. C. MUSE

FOR CITY COUNCILMAN

To the Voters of High Point: An impartial straw vote has been taken at some 15 business places in all sections of the 4th ward, giving me a considerable lead. Therefore, in a sense of high appreciation it gives me pleasure to announce my candidacy for councilman subject to the action of the primary.

D. T. ANDREWS.
